

JV boys split games

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

HHS boys' jayvee basketball team split a pair of games falling to Wray, Friday, Feb. 5 and beating Burlington the following night.

Holyoke JV 47, Wray 55

Holyoke fell behind 9-16 early but fought back to trail by just two at the end of both the second and third quarters. Free throws accounted for most of Wray's fourth-quarter points which allowed them to secure the 55-47 win.

Alex Quintana led scorers with 23. Jaydin Goldenstein added 11, Austin Killin and Brett Cumming each had four, Cody Fricke and Jeremy Loutensock each with two and Seth Baker added one.
