

Wrestlers named to 'Post' All-State list

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

HHS Dragon wrestlers fared well in the Denver Post All-State wrestling selections. All five wrestlers who qualified for state in February placed in the top four, and all were mentioned in the All-State selections.

Named to the 2A first team were state champions Chad Stroh, senior, at 135 lbs.; and Mark Edmonds, sophomore, at 112 lbs. Earning Honorable Mention All-State designation were senior Luke Garrett at 171 lbs., senior Cade Garrison at 152 lbs. and junior Skyler Dittmer at 130 lbs.

Other 2010 state champions from this area who made first team All-State are Bon Kinder and Isaiah Churchwell of Burlington; Buddy Watson, Kohl Knutson and Tyler Davis of Wiggins; and Layne Crumley of Akron.

Other area second-teamers are Wyatt Barber and Tuff Gibson of Merino; Dalton Marini, Aaron Erker and Kyle Pollock of Wiggins; and Mike Satterly of Burlington.

Other area honorable mention All-Staters are Caleb Christensen of Akron; Colin Eberhart, Gabe Lerma, Trenton Rico, and Miguel Torres of Burlington; and Zach Jackson and Omar Martinez of Wray.
