

Logan Krueger is named to Colorado 2A baseball first team

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Denver Post recently announced the Best of the Best baseball list. Holyoke High School player Logan Krueger was named to the 2A first team as an infielder. Krueger also received honorable mention in last year's listing.

Making the All Colorado team was Pierce Trumper. He is the son of Rocci and Marla Trumper of Fort Collins. He is the grandson of Bob and Karen Trumper and Naomi Newman, all of Holyoke.

Other LPAA athletes making the 2A first team are Chance Friedly of Akron and Rolando Celis of Wiggins. Those receiving honorable mention are Zach Barcelona of Wray, Tevin Gilbert of Wiggins, Byron Guy of Akron and Cade Reinick of Wray.
