

Wray advances to championship game

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Another team from the North Central Conference will appear in the Class 1A state championship football game Saturday, Nov. 27.

Wray (12-0) handed Limon a big 49-6 loss Saturday, Nov. 20 in the semifinals.

The Eagles will host Burlington (11-1) who beat Hotchkiss 20-13. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. in Wray.

This marks the 10th straight year a North Central team has advanced to the championship game. The last two years have pitted two North Central teams together in the title game. Out of the previous nine years, a North Central team has won the title six of those years. Akron won top place honors in 2001, 2002, 2006, 2007, 2008 and Yuma won the 2009 title.
