Kaitlin Yost, a senior and member of the McCook, Neb. Christian Homeschool Basketball team, was named to the All-Tournament Team at the Sunflower Invitational Tournament in Hays, Kan. Jan. 6-7.

Players selected for the honor were voted on by the coaches of the opposing teams.

Teams playing in the tournament were from Omaha and McCook, Neb., Reno County, Kan., southwest and north central Kansas.

Yost has been starting for the McCook Chiefs for the past four years. She is the oldest member on the team and is a huge asset to the team. She is a great leader on and off the court, her coach Travi Rambali said.

“She is an all around athlete with great sportsmanship. We look forward to seeing her accomplish great things on the court the rest of the season,” Rambali added.

Yost is the daughter of Brad and Kala Yost of Holyoke.
