

Seniors to play in NJC All-Star games

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Five Holyoke basketball players have been selected to participate in the NJC All-Star games Sunday, April 3 on the NJC campus in Bank of Colorado Events Center.

Lady Dragon players Marci Vasa, Mallory Bennett, Kaylee Groshans and Heather Duester have been chosen for the girls' game which tips off at 3:30 p.m. A three-point competition will be held at halftime.

Brian DeBoer will represent the Holyoke Dragons in the boys' game set to begin at 6 p.m. A slam dunk contest will take place at halftime.