

JH boys basketball plays St. Anthony's

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke junior high boys' basketball teams traveled to Sterling Monday, Nov. 14 to face St. Anthony's.

The A team fell while both the B and C teams earned victories.

The A team lost 19-36. Bradley Cumming led the scoring with nine points. Jesus Loya scored six and Eric Rojo and Fernando Lopez each had two.

The B team won 41-21 and was led in scoring by Gunnar Kroeger with eight points. Alex Strauss had seven, Kaide Bules, Erick Zink and Tyler Camblin each had six, Brendan Mayden four and Edwin Cruz and Zach Churchwell each with two.

The C team beat St. Anthony's 15-4. Avi Turcios scored four points, Jack Smith three and Cruz, Xander Nelson, Churchwell and Wyatt McCallum two apiece.

The Dragons were scheduled to travel to Wray Tuesday, Nov. 22. They will host Haxtun Monday, Nov. 28, with tip off set for 4 p.m.

Holyoke Enterprise November 24, 2011