

Girls' C team lands victory over Yuma

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

It was like they had just won the state championship, the excitement was so high after the HHS girls' C team win over Yuma Friday, Dec. 9.

"I was pleased with the C team win. These young girls were determined to win, and that determination paid off at the end of the game as they brought home the win," said coach Arlan Scholl.

"This is the kind of spirit we need in our sports programs. Congratulations to the C team."

Holyoke started strong, leading 13-6 in the first quarter. Yuma outscored the Dragons in the second and third periods, with Holyoke leading only 24-22 going into the last quarter. They held on through the end of the game for the 29-26 victory.

Stefani Razo led Dragon scoring with 18 points followed by Jentry Andersen and Rosa Ochoa with four apiece, Ana Olivas two and Kaylee Ham one.
