

HHS athletes in 'Best of the Best' Post list

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Four wrestlers, three boys' basketball players and two girls' basketball team members from HHS were recognized last week in the Denver Post's Best of the Best winter sports salute.

Junior Chad Stroh, Holyoke's two-time state wrestling champion, was selected for the 125-lb. weight bracket All-Colorado wrestling team. Additionally, he made the 2A All-State first team.

Honorable mention All-State recognition went to sophomore Skyler Dittmer, freshman Mark Edmonds and junior Luke Garrett.

In boys' basketball All-State selections, both senior Austin Tharp and junior Kyle Carper were named to the 2A first team. Junior Ryan Baumgartner earned All-State honorable mention recognition.

Senior Maddie Starkebaum made the All-State 2A second team in girls' basketball picks. Junior Marissa Smith was All-State honorable mention.