

Junior High track begins in Burlington

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke junior high track members will begin their 2012 season Thursday, March 29 in Burlington.

Thirty-four seventh- and eighth-graders fill this year's roster. Angela Powell is the head coach and is assisted by Nic Balog and Cindi Beavers.

Seventh-graders on the roster include Tyler Camblin, Zachary Churchwell, Emily Krogmeier, Brendan Mayden, Norman Mendoza, Karen Nuñez, Logan Osborne, Whitney Powell, Brook Prottzman, Kaitlyn Shafer, Tristan Sullivan, Mackenzie Thompson and Erick Zink.

Eighth-graders include Roni Beavers, Adi Bencomo, Issac Brandt, Danielle Brandt, Bradley Cumming, Peyton Dittmer, Jahir Gardea Caraveo, Marques Harvey, Dominic Krogmeier, Cody Lamm, Kaitlyn Lenhart, Lori McWilliams, Monica Montes, Xander Nelson, Scott Osborne, Megan Parker, Tony Roberts, Fernando Rojo, Eric Rojo, Avi Turcios and Alex Yanez.

Serving as managers for the team are Makenna Bishop and Dakota Gipson.

In addition to Thursday's opening meet, the team will travel to Benkelman, Neb. Thursday, April 5; Akron Tuesday, April 10; Perkins County, Neb. Thursday, April 12; St. Francis, Kan. Tuesday, April 17; Chase County, Neb. Thursday April 26 and LPAA meet in Sterling Thursday, May 3.

Holyoke Enterprise March 29, 2012