

Golf season is coming to a close

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Holyoke girls' golf team is rapidly seeing its season come to a close.

Coach Garrett Gordon said each of the girls has made a big improvement as the season has progressed. He noted nearly half the team is stepping onto the course for the first time this year and they are all playing well and working hard.

The team hosted a scramble-style tournament on their home course Wednesday, April 25. All six of Holyoke's golfers played in the tournament.

Makayla Spitz and Caitlyn Kramer turned in the lowest score for the three Dragon teams after shooting a 48.

Alyssa Cordova and KrisAnna Ham teamed up to card a 50 while the team of Kelsey Kramer and Alex McCallum turned in a 60.

The low round of the day came from Haley Patterson and Sherelle Brophy of Yuma with a 42. The Yuma team of Alex Mekelburg and Morgan Weinrich and the Wray team of Darcy Vernon and Torri each shot 43.

Yuma won the tournament with a combined score of 85. Holyoke was second with a 98 and Brush was third with a 109. Scores came from the two lowest pairings.

Teams participating in the scramble were Holyoke, Brush, Yuma, Fleming and Wray.

Golf season is coming to a close

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

With the start of the fall season, the golf season is coming to a close. The weather is getting cooler, and the grass is turning brown. This is a good time to reflect on the season and plan for the future. The Holyoke Enterprise will be covering the local golf scene throughout the fall.