

Baumgartner signs to play ball at Doane

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

HHS senior Reid Baumgartner, pictured in middle of front row, signed a letter of intent Tuesday, May 8 to play basketball at Doane College in Crete, Neb. He plans to major in wildlife biology. Baumgartner is pictured in front with parents John and Jill Baumgartner; and back row HHS counselor Summer Maloney and HHS assistant coach Aaron Sprague.

Baumgartner played baseball, basketball and football all four years of his high school career and lettered all four years in each sport. He also earned numerous All-Conference honors in each sport and was selected to play in this year's All-State basketball game.

He will now focus on basketball and follow in the footsteps of former HHS basketball teammates Kyle Carper and his older brother Ryan Baumgartner who have played for the Tigers the past two seasons. —Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise May 10, 2012