"While Burlington was a tough competitor, it seemed that the girls kept themselves out of the games with errors," said coach Ashley Clayton when the HHS softball team fell 5-17 and 2-12 to Burlington Saturday, Sept. 1.

The Dragons never gave up, however, and in both games came back to keep from being 10-run ruled in the fifth. The first game went the full seven innings, while the second ended by run-rule after the sixth.

Coach Clayton said the games would have been much closer if they could have kept the defensive errors to a minimum. "Coach (Kendra) Schlachter and I were proud of their offensive effort," Clayton added.

Citing that this year's team is young and inexperienced, Clayton said she knows they will continue to put in the hard work they need to in order to improve.

"The season is still young, and they are showing a lot of promise," said the coach. "It's nothing a lot of practice can't fix."

Holyoke 5, Burlington 17

In the first game of an extremely hot day of softball Saturday, Burlington put two runs up in the first inning, one in the second, a whopping eight in the third and one in the fourth for a 12-point lead.

Never giving up, the Dragons scored four in the bottom of the fourth to keep the game alive, 12-4.
