

Girls suffer Homecoming loss, bounce back for Kansas tourney

Written by Darci Tomky

Homecoming was disappointing for the Lady Dragon volleyball team, who lost to Yuma Friday night, Oct. 5 in a quick three games.

Saturday, Oct. 6 was a different story, though, when Holyoke finished in second place in their St. Francis, Kan. tournament, winning two out of their three games.

Coach Michelle Vieselmeyer said all the Homecoming festivities plus more school activities on top of that just made the week really distracting and tiring for the girls. By Friday evening, they had a hard time focusing on the court.

She said they started off good, with the first game only a three-point 22-25 loss to Yuma. The next two were not good, with HHS defeated 13-25 and 19-25.

Serving errors and poor movement on the court contributed to the loss, said coach Vieselmeyer.

However, she noted Lindsay Helgoth and Jacinda Krueger both had good games attacking at the net as well as in serving.

Girls suffer Homecoming loss, bounce back for Kansas tourney

Written by Darci Tomky

By Darci Tomky - The volleyball team's performance in the homecoming loss was a testament to their resilience and determination. The girls showed great support and teamwork throughout the match, and their bounce back for the Kansas tourney was a true testament to their spirit. The team's ability to overcome adversity and perform at their highest level was a true testament to their hard work and dedication. The girls' support and teamwork were a true testament to their spirit and determination. The team's ability to overcome adversity and perform at their highest level was a true testament to their hard work and dedication.