

Lady Dragons end season at regional volleyball

Written by Darci Tomky

For the third time in HHS volleyball history, the Lady Dragons represented Holyoke in the regional volleyball tournament.

Facing tough competition, the Dragons ended their season with two losses to Akron and Lyons last Friday, Nov. 9.

Maddie King (at left) and Erin Vieselmeyer put up the block to stop a powerful Akron hit. Holyoke showed great strength at the net against Akron in regional tournament action last Friday. —Enterprise photo

They finished with a 13-12 record and one of the best seasons Holyoke has seen for many years.

“I’m really pleased with the girls’ efforts this year,” said coach Michelle Vieselmeyer, adding how proud she is that the girls beat some teams they haven’t for a very long time.

The Lady Dragons began their regional tournament in Akron facing the Rams. Holyoke lost in three sets, 21-25, 18-25 and 18-25.

Lady Dragons end season at regional volleyball

Written by Darci Tomky

the region, they had a strong showing in the final match, defeating the host team, the Lady Panthers, 3-0.

The Lady Dragons' season ended on a high note as they defeated the Lady Panthers, 3-0, in the final match of the regional tournament.

The Lady Dragons' season ended on a high note as they defeated the Lady Panthers, 3-0, in the final match of the regional tournament. They were crowned regional champions and will represent the school at the state level.