

Dragons among league athletes receiving All Conference honors

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Four Dragon baseball players were recognized for placement on the All Conference and honorable mention lists at the Holyoke High School spring sports award banquet last Tuesday, May 19.

Senior Austin Tharp and junior Logan Krueger both returned this year to win All Conference honors again. Tharp was honorable mention his freshman year and All Conference his sophomore and junior years. Krueger also received honorable mention as a first-year and All Conference as a sophomore.

Those receiving honorable mention were seniors Brandon Price and Brett Gerk. Both were on the honorable mention list last year as well.

Other baseball players making All Conference in the LPAA league include Byron Guy, Logan Davisson and Chance Friedly of Akron; Craig Debus, Cody Zink and Robbie Hendrix of Caliche.; Kendall Kroeger, Austin Ochola and Matt Ramirez of Haxtun; Brandon Martinez of Merino, Richie Rochlitz of Sedgwick County; Chris Garcia, Rolando Celis and Junior Leon of Wiggins; and Ben Reinick and Tim Kerbs of Wray.

Other honorable mentions in the league went to Benji Vigil of Akron; Derek Weingardt of Caliche; Ryan Dee of Haxtun; Cody Propst of Merino; Eric Kantor, David Collins and Justin Tjaden of Sedgwick County; Aaron Gross and Tevin Gilbert of Wiggins; and Cam Burgess of Wray.