

Dylan Kotch, Jesus Hermsillo place at Brighton wrestling invite

Written by Brenda Johnson Brandt

Dylan Kotch was runner-up at 220 lbs. and Jesus Hermsillo finished third at 195 for Holyoke's only placings at the tough Brighton Varsity Wrestling Tournament Saturday, Feb. 2.

Others who earned a win in the Saturday tournament brackets were Issac Brandt, Nicholas Ortner and Spencer Kotch.

Coach Jack Garrison acknowledged it was a tough tournament, but he wishes the kids could have fared better.

But onward to the next action, as it's only two weeks to the Big Show on the state mats in Denver.

This week, Holyoke traveled to Burlington for dual action Tuesday, Feb. 5. The Dragons will host Wray in a dual Thursday, Feb. 7 at 6:30 p.m. and will compete in the Eaton Duals Tournament Saturday, Feb. 9.

That's it before the Feb. 15-16 regionals and Feb. 21-23 state tourney.

Coronado High School won the Brighton Varsity Tournament with 151.5, squeaking by runner-up Cherokee Trail with 150.

Other team scores follow: Brighton 138.5, Cherry Creek 120.5, Prairie View 115.5, Pueblo Centennial 103, Brush 88, Fort Morgan 78, Burlington 63.5, Niwot 54.5, Denver East 53.5, Fort Lupton 44.5, Holyoke 39 and Yuma 37.

Individual results for HHS wrestlers follow:
