

Weight room gets a face lift

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Through funds raised by the HHS football team selling trash bags, community donations and proceeds from the sale of a large framed aerial photograph of a home football game this past fall, HHS was able to purchase a great deal of new equipment in the school weight room, such as the squat racks pictured above.□□

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise February 7, 2013