

Erin Vieselmeyer signs to Concordia University

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

During her time as a Dragon, Vieselmeyer has been a key component to the success of the team. She has lettered three times and earned All-Conference Honorable Mention recognition last year as a junior. This year she is on track to earn more honors as she is currently averaging over 15 points, nine rebounds and two steals each game from the post.

Vieselmeyer was also a three-year letter recipient in volleyball, earning All-Conference Honorable Mention as a junior and All-Conference recognition this year. Along with athletics, Vieselmeyer is involved in FCCLA, NHS, FBLA, student council and select choir.
