

Holyoke swim meet set for Sat.

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke swim team will dive into summer competition as the members host the Northwest Kansas Swim League's season-opening meet Saturday, June 1.

Warm-ups will begin at 7 a.m. and last until 8:15 a.m. with competition to begin roughly at 8:30 a.m. and lasting until 2 p.m.

Approximately 47 Holyoke swimmers are expected to compete at the meet.

Along with Saturday's meet, Holyoke swimmers are scheduled for five other Saturday meets during the season. Competitions will be held June 8 in Wray, June 15 in Oakley, Kan., June 22 in Colby, Kan. and June 29 in Goodland, Kan. with the league meet in Burlington July 5-6.

Those who wish to attend the competition are reminded to enter on the southeast corner of the pool. Holyoke's team camp will be located on the southeast corner of the grass area outside of the pool.

Teams scheduled to compete in the Northwest Kansas Swim League are Holyoke, Wray, Burlington, Flagler, Limon, Colby, Oakley, Oberlin and Goodland.
