

12 wrestlers enjoy technique camp

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke Wrestling Club took 12 boys to a wrestling technique camp in Akron June 27 and 28.

The local boys were coached by Andrew Colglazier and reported that they learned a lot and had a great time.

Those who attended were Kayden Porter, Deacon Dittmer, Keegan Colglazier, Tyson Mosenteen, Koby Way, Luke Sprague, Mason Sprague, Max Dirks, Jesus Trejo, Luis Chafino, Teagan Martin and Eric Dominguez.

The camp was directed by Joe LeBlanc, assistant wrestling coach at Indiana University.

He was a three-time Colorado state wrestling champion from Meeker, outstanding wrestler of the Colorado State Wrestling Tournament in 2006, on Team Colorado in 2006 and 2007 and earned All-State football honors.

LeBlanc wrestled at the University of Wyoming from 2007-12 and was a four-time NCAA Division I All-American, three-time NWCA academic all-American and three-time WWC conference champion. He was the winningest wrestler in UW history, with 147 wins.

Holyoke Enterprise July 11, 2013