

Experience is strongpoint for Dragon softball team as 2013 season begins

Written by Brenda Johnson Brandt

The 2013 HHS girls' softball team will be looking to the eight returning letterwinners for strong leadership and consistent performance.

The Dragons open on the road this Saturday, Aug. 31 at Burlington, with action beginning at 10 a.m.

Fourteen members make up this year's Lady Dragon team, and coach Ashley Clayton said as a group they have a strong focus on continued improvement. She added that they have worked hard to be disciplined in everything they do at practice.

Returning letterwinners are seniors Alyssa Killin from Holyoke and Keeya Marquez from Revere; juniors Taylor Goldenstein and Stefani Razo from Holyoke and Allison Boehm and Leigha Terry from Julesburg; and sophomores Veronica Beavers and Kaitlyn Lenhart from Holyoke.
