

HHS golfers head to JV scramble

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Junior varsity members of the Holyoke High School boys' golf team made their way to Fort Morgan Wednesday, Aug. 28 to compete in the only scramble on the schedule this season.

Three HHS teams of two squared off with 20 different teams from seven schools.

Kaleb Andersen and Wyatt Bishop had the best outing for the Dragons, carding an 84 in the round. Following close behind were Erick Zink and Dakota Gipson with an 86 and Kody Timm and Scott Osborne with an 88.
