

JV girls go 1-1 at home

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke junior varsity volleyball posted a 1-1 record last week when the Lady Dragons squared off with Chase County, Neb., Tuesday, Sept. 17 and Cornerstone Christian Friday, Sept. 20 at home.

Chase County proved to be a very talented team, using their height at the net as they went on the attack. Coach Theresa Tharp said the Holyoke girls had troubles defending Chase County who scored most of their points on kills and serves.
