

Holyoke cheer squad continues to improve

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke High School's cheer squad faced tough competition at the United Spirit Association Rocky Mountain Classic regional competition in Broomfield as they competed with 5A and 4A teams Saturday, Nov. 2.

Holyoke joined five other teams in the varsity show cheer intermediate division. Although Holyoke finished in sixth, coach Jane Zink noted that the girls looked much sharper than they had in the previous week's competition.

The team is still competing without Brittney Prottzman, which Zink said forced the squad to rearrange their routine and do some things differently than they normally would when they have all six girls.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Holyoke Enterprise November 7, 2013