

4 NE Colo. VB teams finish in top 4 at state

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Northeastern Colorado was well-represented at the 1A and 2A volleyball state tournaments as Yuma made it all the way to the 2A semifinals before exiting the tournament and Fleming, Otis and Caliche all finished as top-four teams in 1A.

Yuma, who advanced past Holyoke in the regional tournament to move on to the state tournament, dominated their opponents through regionals and state pool play. By topping Paonia and Sangre de Cristo in pool play, Yuma advanced to the semifinals where they fell to Resurrection Christian in five sets.
