

HHS athletes dive back into action

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Wednesday, Nov. 13 marked the official start to the 2013-14 winter sports season as Holyoke High School athletes filed into the basketball gym, wrestling room and swimming pool for practice. The season is the first year in which girls' swimming is recognized as an official sport at HHS, being upgraded from a club sport in August.

To read the full article, call us about subscribing to our e-Edition. 970-854-2811

Troy Brown, pictured on his feet, and Cody Lamm work on single leg takedowns during the Thursday, Nov. 14 wrestling practice. Fellow wrestler Logan Gift is pictured in the background.

□ —Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise November 21, 2013