Only 10 Dragon swimmers were able to compete in the dual meet at Eaton Thursday, Dec. 19, but the HHS team brought home two firsts in their efforts.

Emily Krogmeier won the 200-yd. freestyle event with a time of 2:31.25, and Madison Beckner won the 200-yd. individual medley in 2:54.70.

Holyoke also took second place in both those events with Jayden Durbin finishing second in the 200-yd. freestyle and Malena McWilliams second in the 200-yd. individual medley.

In other individual events, Krogmeier finished second in the 100-yd. butterfly, Beckner third in 100-yd. freestyle, Durbin fourth in 100-yd. breaststroke and Malena McWilliams seventh in the 100-yd. breaststroke.
