well as they have been this season.

In the physical match, Holyoke overpowered the Eagles in the paint. HHS controlled the glass, continuously scoring on second-chance opportunities after offensive rebounds. Wray struggled to get past Holyoke's full-court press after HHS made baskets as Holyoke held the Eagles scoreless for the final five and a half minutes of the second quarter.

The Dragons finished the first half up 31-14 after outscoring Wray 11-2 in the second quarter.
