

Holyoke wrestlers continue to compete

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

A combination of Holyoke high school and junior high wrestlers hit the road Saturday, March 15 for one of the toughest Colorado open tournaments in the Rocky Mountain Nationals in Denver.

Competing high school wrestlers were Sid Struckmeyer, Luke Stewart, Dylon Lousberg and Tristan Sullivan. Luis Chafino, Jesus Trejo, Xander Speicher, Deacon Dittmer and Drew Stewart wrestled for the junior high.

“The team’s philosophy after finishing up the regular high school and junior high season is get better or get beat,” coach Cutter Garrison explained. “These individuals are making the moves to improve and their hard work will pay off.”
