Two letterwinners return to the Lady Dragon golf team this year as the squad looks to defend their top standing in the Northern Plains league.

Practice officially commenced Monday, March 10 and competition will begin Monday, March 24 at the Brush Invitational.

Senior Kelsey Kramer and junior Alex McCallum lead the team with experience as both players lettered last year. Other members on the team include senior Federica Detomas, junior Kaylee Ham, Fleming senior Taylor Bernard and Fleming junior Hannah Johnson.

Michaela Worley has taken over as head coach this year. After graduating from HHS in 2008, Worley attended Hastings College in Nebraska where she was a member of the golf team. In the past she has taught private lessons and helped with youth clinics. HHS 2013 graduate Alyssa Cordova will return this season as an assistant coach.
