

Let the racing begin at PC Raceway

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Phillips County Raceway in Holyoke is the place to be for the season opener this Saturday, April 12 at 5 p.m.

The frost-buster season opener will feature BST Tour races including mods, stocks, sport mods and late models, as well as hobbies and dwarfs.

Limited free admission tickets are available for the season opener from sponsors Cobblestone Inn & Suites, S&W Auto/NAPA, Wolf Auto and Holyoke Enterprise in Holyoke; Kurtzer's in Haxtun; and Trustpoint Insurance in Imperial, Neb. Supplies are limited, with tickets available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Additionally, Raceway coordinator Joe Bellm reminds spectators of the $5-off coupon that ran in the schedule inserts in the Holyoke, Haxtun, Imperial, Wray and Julesburg newspapers last week.

To read the full article, call us about setting up an e-Subscription. 970-854-2811

Race teams made their way back to Phillips County Raceway for test races Saturday, April 5. Pictured from left with Garrett Sporhase's 11S car are Stacy Rueter, Julie

Let the racing begin at PC Raceway

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Sporhase, Garrett Sporhase, Steve Towery, Jesse Taylor and Steve Taylor.

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise April 10, 2014