

Strong showing for HHS hurdlers

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Two seniors and two sophomores make up this year's group of hurdlers for the HHS track and field team. Despite being a small team, the hurdlers have consistently been a source of points for the Dragon team at track meets.

"They are one of the strongest groups of kids on this team," coach Sandra Rahe said. "They work hard, listen and they're a coachable group."

Rahe praised the group for their athleticism, noting that the hurdle races, especially the 300 meter race, can be grueling. When muscles are sore, Rahe stated that the hurdlers have to have the tenacity to finish strong.

For the full article, ask us how you can set up an e-Subscription! Call 970-854-2811.

Holyoke High School track hurdlers are pictured from left, front row, Roni Beavers; and back row

—Enterprise photo

Strong showing for HHS hurdlers

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke Enterprise May 1, 2014