

Border prepares for state tourney

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke will host the 16-18-year-old Babe Ruth state baseball tournament this weekend, with teams from Limon and Crowley County slated to participate along with the Border League, made up of players who competed as the Bombers this season.

The first game has Border League facing Limon Friday, July 11, at 7 p.m. at the city ballpark.

Border League players are pictured from left, front row, Cole McKinley, Gunnar Kroeger, Tyler Woodhams and Taylor Mayden; and back row, coach Trenton Ham, Trevor Dalton, Zach Spencer, Cordell Hensley, Rece Coffin, Chance Dunker and coach Justin Peters. Not pictured are Logan Tharp, Nathan Miles, Ryan Nolin, Tristan Lanckriet, Seth Schneider and coach Marcus Kammer.

Holyoke Enterprise July 10, 2014