

Murder mystery and talented cast a killer combination

Written by Darci Tomky

Tuesday, 22 November 2011 15:39 -

---

From the moment the lights came up on the Pallfeather family house, it was nothing but suspense as both cast and audience members alike pieced the puzzle together at the old-fashioned murder mystery “Murder Runs in the Family.”

Murder after murder took place Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 18-19 on the HHS stage as Holyoke witnessed a suspenseful, yet hilarious, crime scene.

Director Eric Conklin relived the good ol’ days of the HHS Drama Department in a riveting play that certainly deserves two thumbs up.

Every single witty, cooky, charming and downright funny cast member all made the annual fall play one to remember.

Finally revealed as the murderer, Aunt Zelda (Kelsey Kramer) threatens to kill everyone, including private eye Jack Sparks (Austin Killin). □ □
—Enterprise photo

Murder mystery and talented cast a killer combination

Written by Darci Tomky

Tuesday, 22 November 2011 15:39 -

