

Holyoke represented well at World Language Day

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Twenty-two Holyoke students traveled to Greeley and the campus of University of Northern Colorado Wednesday, April 18 for World Language Day.

Holyoke was well represented with numerous students. Forty-six students from Holyoke, Haxtun, Julesburg, Revere and Akron competed.

Spanish III students Ben Martinez, Ana Olivas and KrisAnna Ham placed first in video commercial.

Spanish III student Ramiro Iniguez took second place in the art competition.

Tito Fierro and Luke Stewart entered the show and tell contest with Fierro earning fourth place.

Spanish III students Alyssa Killin, Tia Huffman, Audi Peña, Brittney Prottzman and Erin Vieselmeyer entered piñatas.

Others competing during the day were Renan Barrueco, Chris Bieber, Susana Dominguez, Dylan Kotch, Jacinda Krueger, Jesus Martinez, Rosa Ochoa, Bianca Rodriguez, Rachel Schneider, Meg Strauss and Megan Vieselmeyer.

Holyoke represented well at World Language Day

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Five Holyoke students placed at World Language Day contests Wednesday, April 18 in Greeley. Pictured from left are Ana Olivas, KrisAnna Ham, Ben Martinez, Ramiro Iniguez and Tito Fierro.□□

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise May 3, 2012