

JH/HS students recognized for achievements throughout year

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Students in Holyoke Junior High and High School were recognized Monday, May 7 for their hard work and dedication in the classroom. National Honor Society members hosted and conducted the ceremony in the auditorium at HHS.

Citizenship awards were earned by eighth-graders Sidney Struckmeyer and Dani Brandt and were awarded by Shirley Kadlec of American Legion Post #90.

Eighth-grade students who were recognized with Citizenship Awards at Monday night's program are pictured from left, Dani Brandt and Sidney Struckmeyer.

—Enterprise photo

Marcia Dalton presented a National Choral Award to Jordan Zeiler. Junior High Choir Citizenship Awards, as voted by peers, were presented to seventh-grader Juana Penzing and eighth-graders Lori McWilliams and Dani Brandt.

