

NJC students named to spring honor roll

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Northeastern Junior College has released its honor roll list for the spring semester and reports that 170 students were given high academic achievement recognition.

Sixty-nine students made the President's List by earning a 4.0 GPA. Students earning a 3.75-3.99 GPA were recognized for making the Vice President's List.

Students from the Holyoke area making the President's honor roll are Christina Banaka, Brittany Durbin, Connie Ferguson, Amy Krogmeier and Janna Smith.

Kaylee Groshans is recognized for making the Vice President's honor roll.
