

Holyoke hosts honor band

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Twelve Holyoke students participated in the 49th annual honor band in Holyoke Monday, Jan. 21. High schoolers who auditioned and participated in the honor band are pictured above, from left, front row, Ben Martinez, percussion; Alyssa Cordova, percussion; and Camille Elliott, tenor sax; and back row, A.J. Brandt, tuba; Molly Brandt, bass clarinet; Lindsay Helgoth, tenor sax; Rachel Schneider, trombone; Meg Strauss, clarinet; and Eva Penzing, clarinet. Junior highers are pictured below, from left, Trey Bennett and Jarrett Woodhead on percussion and Grace Dille and Whitney Powell on flute.

Peter Toews conducted the high school for “Fanfare for the Third Planet,” “Canto,” “Nessun Dorma” and “March of the Buccaneers.” The junior high, under the direction of Phuong Nguyen, played “Glorioso,” “Crusade,” “The Red Balloon” and “Defying Gravity.” □ □

—Enterprise photos

Holyoke hosts honor band

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke Enterprise January 31, 2013