

Class of 2013 scholarships, future plans announced

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Jessica Baeza plans to attend the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley and major in business marketing. She received the Jack Geist Memorial Scholarship, Holyoke Lions Club Scholarship, University of Northern Colorado Holyoke Alumni Scholarship, University of Northern Colorado Provost Freshman Scholarship and University of Northern Colorado Bear Award.

Elissa Baker plans to attend college to study equine therapy for children and to be a veterinary technician. She received the Velma Biddle Memorial Scholarship and the Clarence Robert Zoll Trust.

Jordan Bernard plans to attend Front Range Community College in Fort Collins and major in massage therapy and early childhood education. She received the Holyoke Education Association Scholarship and the William Lutze Education Trust.

Molly Brandt plans to attend Colorado Christian University in Lakewood and major in communications. She received the Mary Ann and Joel S. Biddle Scholarship, Holyoke Music Parents Association Scholarship, Tim and Larry Stroh Memorial Scholarship, Don Fix Memorial Scholarship, FBLA Business Challenge Scholarship sponsored by Bank of Colorado, Holyoke Enterprise, Holyoke Marketplace and PC Telcom, Colorado Mason's Benevolent Fund Scholarship, Colorado Christian University Trustees Scholarship, Colorado Christian University Partners in Spirit Scholarship, Colorado Christian University Impact Scholarship, Colorado Christian University Beckman Scholarship, University of Colorado Outstanding Junior Award, University of Colorado Boettcher Finalist Scholarship, University of Denver Chancellor Scholarship, Hastings College Crimson Scholarship and Hastings College Walter Scott Scholarship.

Armando Castañeda plans to work for a year and then attend college to study culinary arts.

Gabriela Chavez Marquez plans to attend college at UACH in Chihuahua, Mexico and study aerospace engineering.

Alyssa Cordova plans to attend Northeastern Junior College in Sterling and major in golf course management. She received the Holyoke Music Parents Association Scholarship, Holyoke Marketplace Scholarship, Colorado Home and Garden Show Scholarship and Chadron Academy Award.

Class of 2013 scholarships, future plans announced

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Brett Cumming plans to attend Colorado School of Mines in Golden and major in civil engineering and minor in economics. He will also be on the football team. Cumming received the Len Balderson Education Scholarship Trust, Grainland Co-op Scholarship, Carolyn J. and Dennis J. O'Neal Scholarship, Colorado School of Mines Merit Scholarship and Colorado State University Green and Gold Scholarship.

Camille Elliott plans to attend Colorado Northwestern Community College in Rangely and major in aviation technology. She received the County Sheriff's of Colorado Scholarship and Colorado Northwestern Community College Scholarship.

Chandler Gerk plans to attend Central Christian College in McPherson, Kan., majoring in physical therapy. She will also be a part of the softball team. Gerk received the Chapter BM P.E.O. Scholarship, Gracey Memorial Athletic Scholarship, Hutt Family Education Trust, Megan Schneider Memorial Scholarship, Central Christian College Women's Softball Grant, Central Christian College Founder's Scholarship and Central Christian College Early Bird Scholarship.

Matthew Golden has enlisted in the United States Army. He will depart May 29 for basic combat training in Fort Sill, Okla., where he will prepare to be an Army medic.

Jaydin Goldenstein plans to attend college to study communications. He received the Stanley and Shirley Travis Memorial Scholarship, Don Fix Memorial Scholarship, Holyoke Masonic Lodge Scholarship and Regis University Achievement Scholarship.

Lindsay Helgoth plans to attend the University of Wyoming in Laramie, Wyo., and major in psychology. She received the Holyoke Friends of the Library Scholarship, Holyoke Music Parents Association Scholarship, Reimer Education Scholarship, Grace Ferguson Memorial Scholarship, Fred and Ella Kropp Family Education Trust, University of Wyoming Rocky Mountain Scholars Award, University of Nebraska-Kearney Non-Resident Scholarship, Chadron State College Non-Resident Award, Nebraska Wesleyan University Award and University of Northern Colorado Provost Freshman Scholarship.

Class of 2013 scholarships, future plans announced

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Jesus Hermosillo plans to attend Aims Community College in Greeley and major in business administration. He received the Garry Haynes Memorial Scholarship.

Cesar Hinostroza plans to work next year and work toward a career with the Marines.

Genesis Iniguez plans to attend Aims Community College in Greeley to study nursing.

Jose Jaquez plans to attend the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley and major in exercise science.

Deyten Klein plans to attend Eastern Wyoming College in Torrington, Wyo., and major in business management. He received the VFW Zeiler-Owens-Lindsay Post 6482 Two-year Scholarship, Eastern Wyoming Golf Scholarship and Eastern Wyoming College Border Scholarship.

Michaela Kleiner plans to pursue a career with the Navy.

Spencer Kotch plans to attend Lincoln Technical Institute in Denver and study HVAC.

Class of 2013 scholarships, future plans announced

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Click here to view the full list of graduates who received scholarships from the Holyoke Enterprise Foundation. For more information, contact the Holyoke Enterprise Foundation at HolyokeEnterprise@holyoke.edu.