

Kids take over streets for walk-to-school day

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Dozens of kids took over the streets around the elementary and JR/SR high school as they took part in the International Walk-to-School Day Wednesday, Oct. 9.

After completing a few laps around the football field, students in grades K-12 were treated to ice cream as Phillips County administrator Randy Schafer and Holyoke Mayor Orville Tonsing read the proclamation declaring Wednesday, Oct. 9 as Walk-to-School Day as a part of International Walk-to-School Month.

For the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition by calling 970-854-2811.

Second-graders file into the street for International Walk-to-School Day as, pictured from left, Luke Sprague, Edgar Avila, Cash Weber and Carter Van Overbeke lead the way.

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise October 24, 2013

Kids take over streets for walk-to-school day

Written by Holyoke Enterprise
