

Concert showcases HHS band, fall marching tunes

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

With the fall months busy preparing pep band tunes for football games and halftime shows, HHS band members showcased the music for family and friends at a concert Thursday, Oct. 24 in the HHS auditorium.

Under the direction of Mitsuko Martinez, musicians kicked off the showcase with the “big three” in their fight music collection, “Holyoke Fight Song,” “The Hey Song” and “Go Big Green” as well as the Holyoke percussion cadence, all of which are original HHS arrangements.

For the full article, call 970-854-2811 for more information about setting up an e-Subscription.

Dani Brandt on trumpet and Kaylee Ham and Emily Krogmeier on alto sax perform songs from their 2013 band halftime show.□□

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise October 31, 2013

Concert showcases HHS band, fall marching tunes

Written by Holyoke Enterprise
