

Students host rockin' Christmas celebration

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Christmas spirit was certainly alive in the HHS auditorium Thursday evening, Dec. 5 when Holyoke elementary students in kindergarten, second grade and fourth grade hit the stage for their annual Christmas program.

Elementary music teacher Marcia Dalton kicked off the program with fun holiday numbers with the kindergarten group.

Corben Rosales, Andrea Marquez and Hannah Lindholm sport some flashy blow up instruments for the second-grade's version of "The Reindeer Rock." □ □

—Enterprise photo

Songs included "We are the Stars," "I'm So Glad It's Christmas," "Holiday Hop," "Gingerbread Cookies" and "Shout!!" A special song they performed was called "A Million Little Snowflakes,"

Students host rockin' Christmas celebration

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

which was written in honor and memory of the precious students of Sandy Hook Elementary.

The brave kindergarten students also got up to the microphones for two poems called “A Chubby Little Snowman” and “The Christmas ABC’s.”

Next up was the second-grade group and their song “A Super Celebration” followed by “Este Es La Navidad” with instrumentalists Bryson Dirks, Katie Marshall, Damari Fernandez Perez, Jorge Barajas and Azury Chaparro Rangel.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Kindergartners join hands for one of their numbers during the elementary Christmas program last Thursday night. Students are pictured from left, front row, Colby Weber, Fatima Castillo, Cozner Ring and Xavier Farrell; second row, Callum Mackay, Jackie Santiesteban, Mason Sprague, A.J. Acosta and Gabriel Anderson; and back row, Ruby Dominguez, Rut Espinoza and Eduardo Flores.□□

—Enterprise photo

Students host rockin' Christmas celebration

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke Enterprise December 12, 2013