

Big top goes big at Event Center

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Partners in Education’s Carnival for Classrooms was over the top this year as it moved from the elementary school to Phillips County Event Center for the first time. The space was overflowing April 11 with carnival games, food and a silent auction as well as the addition of a big inflatable slide and bounce house. Above, a group of boys take aim with their water guns during the P.I.E. Carnival last Friday. Pictured from left are Carter Van Overbeke, Anthony Rojo, Riley Powell and Mason Powell.

PIE Carnival volunteers juggle the buzz of activity under the red and yellow big top at Phillips County Event Center last Friday, April 11.
