

Kids go buggy at elementary spring concert

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

First- and third-grade Holyoke Elementary School students had the HHS auditorium buzzing Monday, April 21 as they performed pieces from “Goin’ Buggy” by Michael and Jill Gallina for the annual spring concert.

Music teacher Marcia Dalton directed the children as they enthusiastically demanded rights for the insect population through song and dance.

Songs in the program included “Goin’ Buggy,” “That’s No Way to Treat a Ladybug,” “Firefly, Firefly,” “The Honeybee Song,” “Fuzzy Little Caterpillar,” “The Buggy Wuggy,” and “The Bugs Bill of Rights.”

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Marlon Turcios, at left, and Daniela Fierro flash their dancing skills during Monday night’s first- and third-grade spring concert.□ □

Kids go buggy at elementary spring concert

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise April 24, 2014