

34 Dragons ready for graduation this Sunday

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Another set of Dragons have completed their journey at Holyoke High School, with 34 excited seniors set to receive their diplomas at graduation this Sunday, May 11, at 2 p.m. in the HHS gym.

Holyoke School Superintendent Bret Miles will welcome students, family and friends at Sunday's graduation, with the HHS Class of 2014 presented by Principal Susan Ortnier.

Scholarships and plans will be announced by counselor Summer Maloney, while school board members Kim Killin and Jon King will hand out diplomas as the seniors cross the graduation stage.

Addresses by the class valedictorian and salutatorian will be given at the ceremony. Those students will be announced Friday, May 9, when final grades are due for the seniors.

Class president Alan Madrid will also be speaking Sunday when he gives the farewell.

Citizenship award winners will be recognized by Jim Gribben and Susan Roll Walters of American Legion Post 90 and its Auxiliary.

The commencement ceremony will feature music performances, including "Gone, Gone, Gone" by the HHS choir and "Wake Me Up" by the HHS select choir, both under the direction of Marcia Dalton.

The HHS band will perform "Selections from the Motion Picture Les Miserables," directed by guest conductor Pat Wiebers.

Members of the Class of 2014 are Wyatt Thomas Bishop, Jasmine Nicole Conde, Trevor Douglas Dalton, Federica Detomas, Susana Dominguez Moreno, Raquel Galvan, Brenda
